ports good attendance at the implements etc. of Jam's Steed on last Saturday. Everything sold well.

The grand jury is still in session and judging from the large number of witnesses being examined there will be quite a number of indictments returned at this session.

work will begin immediately on the new Masonic building on Main street. The building will be of brick and stone and will be two stories high.

The auction sale of the goods of the store of S. H. Weakley at is a rare chance for bargains.

Mr. W. S. Y. Coodles, whom we reported last as being quite ill with blood poisoning is no better and his condition is thought to be quite critical. Mr.
Goodlet is one of the county's most substantial citizens.

The Town Trustees are having vitrified brick gutters put in on the south side of Main street for about a square. The improvement is a good one and should be extended. Contractor R.
Harris of Harpersburg is doing the work.

At the close of the Shewmaker trial last Saturday court adjourned until yesterday, consequently very little business has been transacted since our last issue.
Several small cases on the criminal docket were disposed of yesterday.

Tuesday was probably the quietest election ever held in this county, and if the number of votes cast in the three precincts in Springfield be taken as a criterion the total number of votes for the entire county counted on that day was about the smallest ever. Only 184 votes were cast in the three voting precincts in Springfield, and Mr.
Harrall, the Prohibition candidate captured seven of the number.

The services formally installing Rev. A. A. Strickland as pastor of the Springfield Presbyterian church took place on last Sunday. Rev. Dr. Moffett of Lebanon and Rev. W. T.
Overstreet of Perryville, were present and conducted the sermons, Dr. Moffett preaching the sermon and Mr. Overstreet delivering the charges.

This election law is still a Chinese puzzle to many of the election officers, as well as some voters.
At a certain voting precinct in this county on last Tuesday the officers, after the polls closed sealed up the ballot book and locked it up in the box, while one of the officers put the ballots in his pocket and took them home with him and burned them in his kitchen stove. He afterwards explained that the reason he did not burn them at the polls was because there was no fire on the place.

An informal reunion of the McElroy brothers and sisters being present as follows. Messrs.

Grundy, Mrs. Mattie McDowell, Mrs. Lizzie McDowell, Mrs.
Emmett Field. A delightful dinner was served by the hostess Mrs. A. C. McElroy, and Mr.
Hugh McElroy made the occasion a golden one in more respects than one by placing under the plate of each child's place brothers and sisters fifty dollars in gold.

Mr. Adolf a young man from the state of Texas and Miss Ella Payne of the Tennessee, were married by appointment at the home of Mrs. A. C. McElroy, the marriage last week. The young people had never seen each other but had become acquainted by correspondence. The young man arrived here on last Thursday and by appointment met his bride at the home of his fiancée in Springfield. For fear of being intercepted the young couple decided to drive to Valley Hill where they boarded the afternoon train and went to Louisville where they were married. Saturday evening the happy pair returned to Springfield and the following day they were married at the home of the bride's parents where they were probably forgiven.

Mr. Adolf who is a young German says that he likes Kentucky so well that he will probably locate here.

Ernest Mansfield's Last Letter.

The last letter written by Ernest Mansfield to his mother, which was penned on the same afternoon of his fatal boat ride, was received after the telegraph announcing the terrible news of his death by drowning. The letter is full of love and affection for the mother and speaks of his own hopes and ambitions for the future in a cheerful way showing he believed that life held for him bright prospects.
After writing of his mother's devotion and sacrifices for his children Ernest writes:

"The remaining days of my life I pray to God will be to realize what you have so long dreamed of and expected. It is all I can do to be happy long enough to exert every effort to make it possible. I am healthy and vigorous now and I can think and reason more clearly than ever before. My nervousness has left me and I feel a man. Keep cheerful all the time in the hope you are sure to realize.
You devoted son, Ernest."

The remains will reach here on the noon train Thursday and the funeral will take place on Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the Presbyterian church.

born at Springfield December

Jesus. She leaves a husband, not speculation; not debating but doing. She endured her suf-
